

Document Requirements France

Certified true copy: The certified true copy is one of the requirements that apply to the documents. It indicates that the copy of the document that you are submitting must necessarily be certified true to the original either by the issuer of the document or by a recognized authority in the country or territory where the document was issued.

You can consult this list of authorities recognized for certifying documents.